22 Artists
In Prize
Exhibition

Twenty-two outstanding artists will exhibit in the fifth annual Purchase Prize show at the Library Gallery starting Sunday, Nov. 1.

Sponsored by the Exhibits Committee of the Friends of the Library, the show will feature a $400 prize to the winning painter. The painting will then be presented to the Library to become a part of the permanent collection.

THE WINNING painting is decided by a vote of the public and by three judges. Balloting will be from Nov. 1 to Nov. 14. Judges are David Metzgar, Ernest Freed and Don Conan.

The exhibit will open with a reception for the artists in the Library Gallery on Nov. 1 from 3 to 5 p.m. to which the public is invited. The exhibit will continue through November.

PARTICIPATING artists are:

Anders Aldrin, Karl Benjamin, William Brice, Flavio Cabral, Jae Carmichael, Phil Dilke, Edgar Ewing, Fritz Faliss, Robert Ellis, Keith Finch, Robert Frame.

Also, Richard Haines, Einar Hansen, Herica Hartmetz, Susan Lautmann Hertel, Roger Kuntz, Douglas McClellan, Martin Mondrus, Bentley Schaad, David Schnabel, James Strombotne, Jirayr Zorthian.

Post Office Needs
Employees for Christmas Rush

The Post Office will begin accepting applications for Christmas employment on Nov. 1, Postmaster Charles F. Louk announced yesterday.

Mr. Louk also said there is an urgent need for station wagons to be used for the delivery of parcel post and other mail. Anyone owning a station wagon and interested in using it for this purpose may apply at the Post Office.

Applicants must be citizens of the United States and must have reached their 18th birthday.

Applications and further information can be obtained at the Post Office.

Support Rose
Float—Win
Free Tickets

Want to win four good seats at the Rose Bowl game?

You can take a chance and contribute to a worthwhile project at the same time for only $1. Money collected will go toward building Sierra Madre's float in the 1960 Rose Parade.

The amount needed this year is only $1,000, according to George Fleming, finance chairman for the Rose Float Committee. The big drive to raise funds will be made during the last three weeks of November, Mr. Fleming said.

The last Rose Float Committee meeting was held Oct. 10. Those attending included Mr. Fleming, Ralph Rule, James Abernethy, Eugene Bell, Ross Blakeley, Robert Winegardner, Jim Dunnagan, Milton Emerson, Bill Wilder, Don Colbert, Vic Calderello, William Waite and T.A.D. Fessenden.

Newell Barrett
To Moderate
Panel on Youth

"The Quality of Youth in Sierra Madre" will be the topic of the open meeting panel discussion of the Coordinating Council on Tuesday, Nov. 3, at 8 p.m. in the Education Research Center at Sierra Madre School.

The regular monthly meeting of the Coordinating Council will deal exclusively with a youth leadership of youth, in preparation of the Sierra Madre report to the Governor's Advisory Committee, for inclusion in the governor's report at the White House Conference on Youth, in March, 1960.

Newell Barrett will be the moderator of the panel, composed of representatives of the various youth groups in the community.

"Since so many of our children are involved in some sort of youth program, we as citizens and parents are vitally concerned with the leadership our children have outside the home," said Mrs. Carl Cheadle, Coordinating Council president.

City Appoints New
Mayor, CouncilmanGOP, Demos
To Debate
Differences

"The Basic Differences of the Two Major Political Parties" will be the subject for debate at the next meeting of the Sierra Madre Republicans Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 8 p.m. at the home of

Sanford Weiner

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Colvin, 336 Sturtevant Dr.

Sanford Weiner, advertising executive, and member of the Republican Speakers' Bureau Steering Committee and of the County and the State Republican Central Committees, and Rudolph Pacht, Los Angeles attorney, legal counsel for the Southern California Democratic Council, and member of the County Democratic Central Committee, will be the speakers.

Eugene Bell, former president of the Foothill Young Republican Club, will act as moderator.

Kenneth Moyer, president of the Sierra Madre Democrats, and Mrs. Moyer will be special guests, according to Frank Parks, Sierra Madre Republicans president.

All Sierra Madres, Republicans and Democrats, who are interested in the political philosophies of their respective parties, are invited to attend.

WINS CONTEST

Harriette Thompson, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Thompson, 23 S. Lima, recently won $50 in a contest sponsored by the Los Angeles Mirror-News. Harriette is a fourth grader at Sierra Madre School.

2-Hour Parking Limit Set for Early Adoption

One-hour parking in the business district, which for several months has been the bane of local merchants, may be lengthened by an additional hour in the near future.

A petition requesting two-hour parking in the downtown area, signed by more than 40 businessmen and local residents, was presented to the City Council Tuesday night.

The Council instructed City Attorney Charles R. Martin to bring in an ordinance changing the law at the next meeting Nov. 10. The Council may then adopt it as an emergency measure.

Merchants apparently believe the present one-hour parking limit is no longer necessary. They have also grumbled about the large number of parking tickets handed out by the police although comparatively few of them have been for over-time parking.

Red Cross
Asks Blankets
For Japan

The Sierra Madre Chapter of the American Red Cross is now collecting blankets—clean ones in good condition—for immediate shipment to victims of the typhoons in Japan and Korea.

Donors may leave blankets at the Red Cross headquarters, 25 S. Baldwin.

The Red Cross already has sent $50,000 to the Japanese and Korean Red Cross Societies. In addition, 25,000 gift boxes filled with health items and 25 school chests to the young victims of the disaster have been shipped.

The two typhoons which have been called the most damaging in history. Approximately 4,700 people have been killed and nearly 2,000,000 made homeless.

H. R. Snow
Promoted

Harry R. Snow, 310 E. Highland, has been appointed co-manager of Alkow & Co., Inc., member of the New York, American and Pacific Stock Exchanges.

A California resident since 1925, Mr. Snow has been associated with several leading New York Stock Exchange member firms. He began his career in the securities business in 1928.

Alkow & Co. operates an office in Beverly Hills, three in New York City, one in Baltimore and one in Hollywood Beach, Fla.

Peterson Is Race Winner

A Sierra Madresan captured first place recently in a hydroplane race at Salton Sea. He is Ralph Peterson, 21, of 28 N. Baldwin. Piloting a Sid-Craft hydroplane, he won top spot in his class. The craft averaged about 55 miles an hour.

Peterson has been racing boats since 1953. His father, Howard F. Peterson, 65 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., is the mechanic. The family moved to Sierra Madre from Toledo, O., about one month ago.

Fire Bell to Signal Parade

The clanging of the bell atop the Sierra Madre Fire Department's antique engine will signal the start of the town's 1959 Halloween parade at 7 o'clock Halloween night, Oct. 31.

Starting from Kersting Square, the youthful ghosts and goblins will march down Sierra Madre Blvd. to Auburn where they will swing north, ending their short march at the Sierra Madre Elementary School.

ALL SIERRA MADRE youngsters are eligible to enter the parade and compete for the prizes which will be given to the best costumed participants.

Dave Sommers, recreation department director, who is in charge of the day's events, requests that all participants gather one hour before the start of the parade.

Prizes will be awarded to the owners of the top three costumes represented by the grade levels which range from the first through the eighth. Members of the Kiwanis Club will judge the contest when the children prance across the auditorium stage.

Besides the Halloween parade, the youngsters will also be treated to three free cartoons which have been donated by Bethany Church.

The comic films will be shown in the school auditorium.

FOR THE enjoyment of the teenage crowd, two free dances will be held in the city. One for the older group will be staged in Pritchard Hall from 8 o'clock until midnight. The second hop, also sponsored by the Civic

St. Rita's Sets
Annual School
Parade Friday

Students at St. Rita's School are busy planning and selecting their costumes for the annual Halloween parade on the school grounds at 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 30.

School will be dismissed at 11:55 a.m., when the school bus will return riders to their homes. Parents are requested to have the children in their classrooms not later than 1 o'clock, so the parade may start on time.

Prizes will be awarded to winners in each class for the best or most unusual costumes. Room mothers will serve refreshments following the parade. No bus service will be provided in the afternoon.

Club, will take place at the Park House. Phonograph records will provide the music for both affairs.

Mariner Girl Scouts and the police-sponsored car club, the "Wheelhaws," will assist Mr. Sommers and his department.

The Scouts plan to decorate a spook house in the cafeteria of the school, while the Wheelhaws will supervise the parade.

Halloween
Bonfire Set in Victory Park

The spectacular community Bonfire program sponsored by the Pasadena Department of Recreation will again be held at Victory Park in East Pasadena on Saturday, Oct. 31, starting at 7 p.m.

Ribbons will be awarded youngsters wearing the spookiest, funniest, prettiest, most original and the most elaborate costumes during the costume parade.

Five Pasadena city departments will cooperate to provide an evening of fun for elementary age youngsters and parents: Park, Fire, Police, Street and Engineering, and Light and Power Departments.

Recreation Budget
Falls $1,500 Short

Attempts to balance the Recreation Commission budget through solicitations has "failed completely," Commission Chairman James McCoy reported at the group's last meeting Oct. 22.

The city agency is facing a $1,500 deficit which will either have to be made up through a city appropriation or by cutting the recreation program.

Mr. McCoy said that spokesmen for the PTA, Civic Club and Masons told him it was contrary to their policy to donate money to a governmental body which is supported by taxes.

THE COMMISSION'S $19,000 budget is expected to fall short, primarily because of low attendance at the swimming pool last summer, particularly during August when cloudy mornings kept bathers away, and because of the failure of the day camp program which was operated at a loss. Also, the city had one more employee at the pool last summer than during the previous year.

Both the City of Sierra Madre and the School District contribute $3,440 each

IN OTHER business, the Commission asked Mr. Butch to prepare a report on the feasibility of converting Bailey Canyon into a wilderness area for picnickers and nature lovers. Bailey Canyon, which contains a stream running south from a waterfall, is east of the Passionist Fathers Monastery.

The Commission also expressed thanks to the Community Friendship Club which donated $5 to be used for Halloween treats for the youngsters.

SIERRA MADRE could well be known as the City of Churches as the new "Welcome to Worship" sign at Michillinda and Sierra Madre Blvd indicates. Most of the town's ministers are shown in this photograph. They are, from left, Rev. Roy E. Hansen, Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church; Rev. James S. Hewett, Bethany; Rev. George W. Lindsay, Congregational; Rev. Harley Gibbs Smith Jr., Church of the Ascension; Rev. Armin Hesse, Faith Lutheran; Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, Temple Beth Israel, and Rev. Chilton McPheters, Methodist. This picture was taken last week following a meeting of the Sierra Madre Ministerial Association.

CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR WINNER, Louis Van Iersel, 134 E. Montecito, Sierra Madre, was the distinguished guest last week at the 42nd Organization Day celebration of the Second Infantry Division in Ft. Benning, Ga. Mr. Van Iersel, who has been called "the greatest living hero of World War I" by the American Legion magazine, flew from Sierra Madre to the reunion in Georgia. Greeting him is Maj. Gen. Robert Weineke, commander of the famed "Indienhead" Division.

Watch Those Egos

It's getting so any more that parents are afraid to say "boo" to their children, even at Halloween, for fear of implanting some germ in them which could sprout into a hideous neurosis.

Nothing is as it seems. The id is struggling with the libido and the results will undoubtedly be disastrous to little egos.

The other day two French scientists, Jean Tremolieres and Jean Claudian, expressed alarm over the habits of French parents who serve their children underdone steak and red wine, "allowing them to pass up spinach and fresh fruit."

"LITTLE DO they suspect," darkly warn Tremolieres and Claudian, "that possibly they are building up aggressive egos in their young."

To say nothing of an upset stomach, I might add. Another academic man, Professor Robert F. Winch, Northwestern University sociologist, has discovered, after all these years, why people fall in love. Sex is secondary, says Professor Winch. So are the more mundane motives such as the desire for companionship, for security, for at least one hot meal a day (as they used to say in the Army), or to reproduce our own kind within the sanctity of wedlock.

Love, explains the good professor, is a "dovetailing of psychological needs" which is "a far stronger force than sexual desire, beauty, or similarity of tastes. Each of us tends to fall in love with someone whose personality is the complement of our own and through whom we can therefore relieve our own frustrations and vicariously live out our impossible wishes. A tough, brusque, hard-driving man may long in secret to be a cared-for child again."

Wouldn't we all, Professor, wouldn't we all. This brings to mind a psychology class in which the teacher was explaining the reasons behind the common and rather obnoxious habit of nose picking. The implications, of course, are obvious, but it did occur to me that perhaps the inveterate nose handler has something up there which needs removed. Could it be that simple?

A LONG TIME ago, when I was a child, my father insisted that I eat everything on my plate, including peas, green beans, spinach and all the other odious accompaniments to chocolate candy and Wheaties. My father was a reasonably strict individual, and he forced me to sit at the table until the platter was clean.

As a child I was of a stubborn and rebellious nature and, as a consequence, I sometimes warned the chair at the dinner table long after other members of the family were contentedly sleeping off the Sunday repast, all the while muttering imprecations against the old man.

By all odds I should have developed into a nervous wreck of a man. And maybe I have, but oddly enough I now eat all my peas with gusto. Also spinach, green beans, Yogurt, jugged hare, wild boar, and any other dish you can name. In addition, I haven't yet taken an axe to my old grandmother.

PERSONALLY I'm an advocate of the "on-the-spot-to-the-point" type of discipline when dealing with children. In other words, if your kid removes the C-string from the grand piano, hit him with it at once (not the piano, the string). Chances are the little brat won't do it again.

I'd like to explore this subject further, but I just remembered something important. The child guidance expert is in town and I've made an appointment. —H.W.E.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

41 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK Nov. 1, 1918—James Sparks, son of Rev. J. D. Sparks of Mariposa Ave., died of pneumonia at Seattle where he was stationed at the Naval Aviation base.

Miss Avis Preston of Long Beach spent the weekend in Sierra Madre.

With two stars in her Honor Flag, Sierra Madre wound up the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign with colors flying. Each star represented an over-subscription equal to 50 per cent of the quota.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK Oct. 27, 1939—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Robertson and family, Miss Margaret Cox and Fred Pagenkopf, spent Sunday fishing at San Onofre, returning with a good catch.

Judy Garland and Frank Morgan starred in the movie "The Wizard of Oz" at the local theater for the weekend.

1939 Chevrolet De Luxe Town Sedan, with radio, price $375 at Frank D. Clay Chevrolet at 2605 E. Colorado St., Pasadena.

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK Oct. 27, 1949—The T. W. McLaughlins of Culver City spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Olea de Campo and son, 317 Sycamore Pl.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hickox, 546 Sturtevant Dr., celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary, were honored at a dinner party at the Claremont Inn.

Eight friends helped Tommy Baker celebrate his third birthday at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Thew, 70 Windsor Lane.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK Oct. 28, 1954—Winning team members in the Halloween window painting contest were Anthony de la Torre, a 6th grade student at St. Rita's School, and Bob Burke, also a 6th grader at the same school. Sam Perloff's Royal Drug Store window was used by the two young artists.

Lee Shippey asks
What Do You Think?

Just to be different, Newspaper Week started Oct. 15 and ended Oct. 21. It is past now, but I think it would be a good thing if everyone in town would drop in at The News office to show appreciation for all the efforts put forth and to wish the editor and his staff good luck for the future.

I can assure you that few persons realize how sincerely and devotedly The News staff has tried to give Sierra Madre a newspaper which will help it progress and which will make persons elsewhere think well of the city. Mighty few persons in the newspaper game work by the clock. You've no idea how often they sacrifice their leisure, their pleasures or their bright plans for their families to give you the news or to take a picture of some event of local interest.

No matter how boresome or inopportune some meetings may be, the press is there to cover them if they are real news. It's a good thing that Harry Elwood is so well married, for I believe if he weren't, and were on the way to his own wedding, and saw something of big news interest happening, he would dash home for his camera and forget all about the wedding, for the moment. That is the true newspaper man's devotion to what he considers his obligation.

I CAN SAY these things because I'm not on the staff. I merely love Sierra Madre and admire the way in which The News is striving to serve it. I have proudly been connected with great newspapers, but I assure you that the local, hometown newspaper can have greater effect on our lives, our welfare and our happiness than any other one thing. It enters into our daily achievements and joys and sorrows far more intimately and with warmer friendliness than is possible for the great newspaper in the big city.

It turns our births and marriages and business and social activities into local history. We would not be able properly to appreciate many of our good neighbors if the newspaper did not tell us things about them which we should appreciate. We have to have the big city newspaper for world news. It is the daily bread of our intellectual life and it is tremendously important to us that we have wholesome daily bread.

But our local paper is our voice, to tell the world what it should know about us. It strives most patriotically to fulfill its obligation to us and we, in turn, should do our best to cooperate with it so that the voice of our town shall be an influence for progress and for good. Every citizen who has any achievement to report with pride, or any news which should interest all of us, should let the editor know so that he may let all of us know, for that is what will make every reader, local or distant, think of Sierra Madre as a live, friendly, admirable community.

Letters to the Editor

SMALL ECONOMY SIZE

Dress designers in one season
Could get back upon the track
When the chemise came a cropper
And the sack dress got the sack.

Car designers, off the deep end,
(Chrome and glass and fins galore)
To recover public favor
Needed seasons three or four.

So we took the sculptured bustle
And the bosomy windshield
As the duty of a citizen
By patriotism steeled.

But having done that duty
We garaged it without fuss
And stepped happily around it
To our little foreign bus.

Now at long last auto builders
Are beginning to react
As with tongue in cheek they tell us
That the word is now "Compact."

GOBLINS ON WHEELS

Dear Sir:

One year ago a solid citizen was spooked by a goblin on wheels. On his way home he stopped on Sierra Madre Blvd. for an errand at one of our accommodating shops. Mission accomplished, he boarded his late, Detroit model, pride and joy.

Low speed astern into a seemingly unoccupied parking space was suddenly interrupted by a solid object to the tune of tinkling glass. Investigation revealed a low, topless, foreign sports car lurking at the curb behind elephantine tail fins and blotted tissue paper fenders of aforementioned pride and joy.

Our efficient constabulary was soon out in force. They were well prepared for shenanigans on this night which is annually dedicated to goblins, both wheeled and broomstick. Blanks on slips of paper filled in resulted in an invitation to join the long lines of dues paying members of a non-exclusive traffic violators club in Pasadena.

At this point we could almost hear the oft repeated cry "Volkswagen" (and others) go home! But are the foreign interlopers really too small, or have local automotive creations reached the awkward dinosaur stage of development? Not infrequently we read of a home driveway tragedy in which a small child tumbles into the blind area behind huge automotive "style" protrusions. Who are the Joneses anyway to dictate that we must roll out a three-ton, 500 horse juggernaut for a half ounce item at the corner drug store?

The past year has shown that Volkswagens, DKWs, and Co. have earned their keep. They have shown us the way back to economical transportation in vehicles designed exclusively for this purpose.

Very respectfully,
K. Fritz Schumacher,
D.K.W. Jockey.

HAWAII—You should know that if you want to see the islands in luxury with all the trimmings of local true folkloric luau, mummus, etc., join the Los Angeles Breakfast Club Tour leaving June 10 on the SS Matsonia from Los Angeles for 22 days. Price from $767.50 and up.

BELGIUM—Ever heard of the lovely beach resorts of Knokke, Le Zoute, Blankenberge and Coq-sur-Mer? They're open from June to September offering a wide variety of excellent hotels, golf course and superb beach facilities. Very few U.S. tourists know about them and there you really "meet the people." Only two hours drive from Brussels or Antwerp.

HOLLAND—Everyone goes to Amsterdam, it's interesting and very crowded. Do you know about the Queen of the Netherlands residence, "The Hague," a truly beautiful city with good hotels of all classes. The best trip from the Hague to be taken early in May—rent a drive-yourself car and drive to Amsterdam, 40 miles through the Tulip and Hicacanth flower fields. Take a camera—it's a must.

FOUR CONTINENTS—The Moore-McCormack Lines just announced the maiden voyage of the all new luxury liner SS Brazil. Departure from New York March 24, undoubtedly one of the best cruises offered yet, visiting four continents—America, Europe, Africa, South America. 61 days, 19 ports, from $2,185 up.

A man can buy lots of experience, but it is seldom as good as the samples submitted.

Around the Square

By Tommy Ann Miller

Not a grouse or grumble heard in town over the blessed sprinkles. Probably because it's infinitely preferable to have nature's own mist hovering over us than smog's smelly walkin'.

(Now, if the clouds could just work themselves into a rainstormy lather and wash away summer's sins).

WOLDO WORKS. In conjunction with Children's Book Week (starting Nov. 1) four of the Library's well-illustrated books, illustrated by Woldo (too fragile now to be in circulation) will be on display. Librarians Betty Keith, Gloria Hinchaw and Judy Potter recently visited Woldo at his San Francisco studio, and secured some of his cards, etc. which will also be shown. The above trio of Woldo fans report he's been painting murals at a children's hospital and has a new book in publication.

AND WHO keeps the Library in shining shape?—Macedonia Sanchez, 163 Grove—who has faithfully tended the Library innards and outyards for more than ten years. He began caretaking and gardening at the old library, and cheerfully comes at odd hours when necessary.

BULB SNATCHERS Ahoy! Arnold's Hardware is displaying two enormous (burned-out) lightbulbs—10,000 watts each—which were used in the klieg lights during the filming of "Porgy and Bess."

THE FAMILIAR face of "Gunsmoke's" lead villain, Saturday night, belongs to Florence MacMichael—wore no makeup and dressed in bad-guy black. Florence, an accomplished actress with all sorts of TV, theater and radio experience, is a graduate of New York's American Theater Academy. She lives at 101 Esperanza with husband, Selwyn Meyer (son of the Al Meyers) and two children, Ruth Ann, 12, and Patrick, 10.

MAKES-UP MINEO. Jack Young is the fellow making up actor Sal Mineo on page 25 of the current Post (thanks to Jack Butler who identified him). Jack, son of Mrs. Fritz Roess (Lillian Young), grew up here and has been a make-up man at MGM for many years.

WINDOWS around the Square were enthusiastically decorated by young Sierra Madrans Saturday—with Hartman's dragon, Lange and Lees' coy ghosts and Ralph's Boot Hill (appropriate) taking prizes. But there were other delightful scenes—for instance: the war-nosed witch at Youngland, the Keepsake's vivid colors, the Highlander's huge galion (no, not galion) and the Klee-ish painting on H. Clay Reavis' window.

COMMUNITY Nursery School president, John Torrey, is currently on a month's business trip in Europe for the Avery Adhesive Label Company (he's vice-president and general manager). Wife, Margaret and quartet of little Torreys are adhering to the home front, 75 Lowell.

SCARECROW PETE has rather deserted his window watching post in the Wistar Flower Shop lately—due to his many social engagements. The orange and yellow figure, whipped up shop owner, Bobby Mari, has been lending a scare to club affairs and private parties.

PAINTING PURCHASE. Don't forget the annual Purchase Prize Exhibit—which should prove an exciting and rewarding Sunday afternoon outing (3 to 5) at the Library. (All credit due the hardworking Exhibit Committee of the Friends of the Library). A painting will be chosen from the two dozen entries by the region's foremost painters.

Reporters Debate Presidential Campaign

By Robert G. Spivack

HOW NOT TO COVER POLITICS—This being the quiet season, with Congress out of town, the members of the Washington press corps are now engaged in a great debate about the 1960 presidential campaign. As frequently happens when there is no other big news, passions become aroused. Some tempers have been lost and maybe some reputations will be shattered. The argument is over the proper way to cover the coming campaign.

What precipitated it has been publication of "Candidates 1960," the book of intimate presidential profiles edited by Eric Sevareid, with chapters by nine leading news correspondents. Since I wrote the foreword I make no pretense of being a disinterested bystander.

The book has generally been well received across the country. The only serious criticism, in fact, has come from British writers and has been directed to one point, which lies at the heart of the current controversy: Is the book "objective to a fault?" This idea was suggested by a writer for the London Observer who reviewed it for The Washington Post.

THESE VIEWS may be shared by a few American columnists, but are not held by most of the political analysts who have reviewed the book up to this time. The idea, though, is worth examining. The way I see it those who argue along these lines are saying (1) that they are baffled by the wide variety of candidates available, especially among the Democrats and (2) they want to be "told" who is best fitted to serve as the next President of the United States.

The authors of the book, on the other hand, felt that to adopt a "we'll tell 'em" approach is the wrong way to go about narrating the stories of Symington, Kennedy, Stevenson, Johnson, Rockefeller, Nixon and the others.

We have a tradition in American journalism known as "let the facts speak for themselves." In no area, it seems to me, is it more important for writers to cling to this tradition than in the area of political coverage.

The writer who feels he must "lecture" his reader unconsciously is saying that he does not trust the reader to make up his own mind on the basis of a full and fair presentation of the facts and facets of a candidate's personality. On the other hand, Sevareid and his associates go on the assumption that any man who reads a book of this sort has a mind of his own. He doesn't have to be "told" nor be spoon-fed, he prefers to think for himself.

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE WRITER?—While all this soul-searching is going on about the function of the political reporter, I think it is just as well American journalists remember that the prejudiced reporting of 1948 and 1952 did very little to enhance their status.

ON THE TRAILS . . .

Early Day Fires Devoured Mountains

By Bill Wark

Fires have plagued our mountains since the first habitation by man. It is known that the Indians made a practice of burning the forest cover each year to keep the country open to travel and make easier hunting.

When the white man came he undoubtedly hastened the destruction of cover with his system of clearing land, and the fires set by sheepmen and Mexican herdsmen in comparatively recent years.

OLD RESIDENTS say that it was a rarity in those early days for a year to go by without at least one disastrous fire occurring in the mountains. Mountain fires, they called them, and the only concern they were to the valley residents was that they made the climate unusually hot when the north wind blew.

They considered them beautiful sights to watch. In fact, editions of the Los Angeles Evening Express of the 1870s used to comment on the view of an evening with the tongues of flame licking up the slopes of the San Gabriels. As late as 1878 there are local remembrances of two cattlemen from Texas who set the whole country on fire in Soledad Canyon, sweeping the cover off the mountains and laying them exposed to the winter torrents.

The practice was followed by these two gentlemen for nearly a decade. Finally in 1884 a severe winter was experienced and lost its end. The railroad and bridges in the Soledad Canyon were flooded. After this episode, Lower Arroyo. This fire last-

A STRIKE in the steel industry is more than a mere dispute between labor and management. It involves the public and the safety of the entire country. Thousands of workers in related industries have been forced out of their jobs by the shortage. This, in itself, creates emergency conditions.

the Dewey-Truman campaign everybody was yawning at pathetically, little old Harry and were falling over each other telling the world what a great man Tom Dewey was.

In 1952, the situation was somewhat different. Many correspondents figuratively fell in love with Adlai Stevenson. As his wit and wisdom became better known they deluded themselves into thinking that he was putting these qualities across to the voters.

Stevenson was charming and delightful but it was obvious to anyone who bothered to talk with an ordinary voter that he was not putting himself or his ideas across. Yet if you go back to the newspaper files you'll find that some of those very people who this year want to "tell" the reader what he "ought" to be thinking are among those who were predicting Stevenson's election by a landslide.

This practice of saying something is happening that we only "wish" were happening, naturally causes the reader to become wary of the writer. He begins to wonder if the story is being angled, if the writer has some pet peeve or some special favorite. Eventually the reader grows suspicious and he concludes "you can't believe what you read in the papers."

Calm, detached, factual reporting is needed most when everyone else is losing his head. This year it is not only let the reader beware; let the writer also beware.

Early Day Fires Devoured Mountains

By Bill Wark

Fires have plagued our mountains since the first habitation by man. It is known that the Indians made a practice of burning the forest cover each year to keep the country open to travel and make easier hunting.

When the white man came he undoubtedly hastened the destruction of cover with his system of clearing land, and the fires set by sheepmen and Mexican herdsmen in comparatively recent years.

OLD RESIDENTS say that it was a rarity in those early days for a year to go by without at least one disastrous fire occurring in the mountains. Mountain fires, they called them, and the only concern they were to the valley residents was that they made the climate unusually hot when the north wind blew.

They considered them beautiful sights to watch. In fact, editions of the Los Angeles Evening Express of the 1870s used to comment on the view of an evening with the tongues of flame licking up the slopes of the San Gabriels. As late as 1878 there are local remembrances of two cattlemen from Texas who set the whole country on fire in Soledad Canyon, sweeping the cover off the mountains and laying them exposed to the winter torrents.

The practice was followed by these two gentlemen for nearly a decade. Finally in 1884 a severe winter was experienced and lost its end. The railroad and bridges in the Soledad Canyon were flooded. After this episode, Lower Arroyo. This fire last-

News of the Churches

Church Asks Gifts of Used Clothes

The Women of the Church of the Ascension will hold their monthly meeting in the Parish Hall, Nov. 4 at 10 a.m. Following the business meeting, Sister Paula of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity will speak on her work in Los Angeles hospitals.

Good used clothing, brought to the meeting, will be a help to her in her work in hospitals and with needy families. She also will take orders for Christmas cards sold by the Associates of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity.

The United Thank Offering ingathering also will be held at the November meeting. This offering is for the missionary work of the church.

Babysitting will be provided at the home of Mrs. William Houck, 245 W. Highland.

THE EVENING Study group will meet at the home of Rev. Harlan I. Wietzel, 190 E. Alegria, Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 8 p.m.

The group will begin its study of the book, "Faith of the Church," one of the six volumes in the church's teaching series.

Books for the study group may be obtained through the church library or by calling Mrs. F. James Blake, SY. 8-7761 or Mrs. William Keith, EL. 5-3880.

THE PARENTS' Club, in association with Ascension Parish School, is sponsoring a rag and grease drive on Nov. 4-6, inclusive. Benefits from the drive will go to the school.

SATURDAY, OCT. 31, is the day assigned to Ascension Parish by the American Church Union as a Day of Prayer for the church. Mass for that day will be said with intention for the American Church Union and its work.

Lutherans To Hear School Choir

The Pasadena Lutheran School Chorus, under the direction of Walter Koch, will sing several anthems in the 10:30 Sunday morning service at Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive.

This year's program of the chorus calls for periodic appearances in the three sponsoring churches of the school: First Lutheran, Mt. Olive Lutheran and Faith Lutheran, all in Pasadena.

In continuing his series of sermons on "Ten Messages From Ephesians," Rev. Armin Hesse has chosen as his Sunday sermon subject, "Gifts for Service and Maturity." The Festival of the Protestant Reformation will be observed by the congregation next Sunday.

On Monday at 7:15 p.m., a series of four Monday evening Cottage Group meetings will be inaugurated by the departments of the church. Two groups will meet each Monday evening. The Monday night groups will be under the team captaincies of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ottosen and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere. The purpose is to discuss vital Christian stewardship information with all members of the parish.

FORTNIGHTERS MEETING

The Fortnighters, prayer group at the Congregational Church, will study the "Discipline of Simplicity" when they meet at the church this Monday evening. Will Horne will lead the group the group.

Funeral Services Observed for Ula M. Linville

Funeral services for Ula May Linville, 78, of 595 Alta Vista Dr., Sierra Madre, were conducted last week at Rose Hills Mortuary in Rainbow chapel, with the Rev. Leonard S. Jones officiating. Interment was in Rose Hills Memorial Park.

Mrs. Linville, a resident of this area for 29 years, was born in Missouri and died Oct. 21 in Intercommunity Hospital at Covina. She is survived by her husband, Phillip, of the home address; two daughters, Bertha L. McIntyre, 157 E. Puente, Covina, and Mary L. Simpson of El Monte; a son, Charles B. Linville, 736 N. 46th St., Covina; four grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Linville also is survived by a sister, Carrie M. Hewitt of Los Angeles.

Mexico Project Is Topic of Women's Group

The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will hold a noon luncheon program meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 3, with Mrs. Walter Rode presiding.

This group helps to sponsor the Ryder Hospital in Porto Rico, new Congregational Church parsonages, and a welfare community center, known as the House of Good Will, in Guadalajara, Mexico.

At this meeting pictures will be shown of the Guadalajara project depicting the work of its social center club for over 200 young children, its library facilities, and its adult classes in dressmaking, stenography and English.

The leaders at next Tuesday's meeting will be Mrs. Harry Leach and Mrs. Joseph Moran.

Mrs. George Lindsay will conduct the devotional part of the program, and Mrs. Herbert G. Seifert will have charge of the luncheon.

Tea-Torah Session Set By Women

Members of the Women's Division of the Foothill Jewish Community Center will meet Thursday morning, Nov. 5, at 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gildon, 1652 Eleavedo, Arcadia, for a Tea and Torah session, conducted by Dr. Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple Center.

The group will start with the Book of Genesis. In reading the text, the rabbi will verify the relevancy of the Bible to our personal and social lives today.

For more information call Mrs. Jules Lerner at HL. 7-0451 or Mrs. Michael Gildon at HL. 6-6821.

RABBI CHARLES STECKEL will conduct services on Friday, Oct. 30, at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 31, at 9 a.m. at Temple Beth Israel. He will be assisted by Cantor Barnett Mitnick, the Junior Choir under the direction of Ronald Streicher and Miss Jeri Schuck, organist.

Hosts for the Oneq Shabbath immediately following the services will be the San Gabriel Valley B'Nai Brith.

Rev. Hansen to Discuss 'Secret Of Happiness'

A sermon on the Beatitudes uttered by Christ will be delivered at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., at 10 a.m. Sunday by the Rev. Ray E. Hansen when he preaches on "The Secret of Happiness."

"The Beatitudes are a gauntlet flung down before the world's accepted standards," Pastor Hansen said. "They are not principles but jets of light and love kindled against the darkness of the age in which we live. They reveal to us today the secret of happiness."

The Lord's Supper will be served. The choir will sing. Sunday School classes are at 9 a.m.

Episcopal Group to Observe Founding of Children's Home

The 47th anniversary of the founding of the Episcopal Church Home for Children will be celebrated at 3 p.m. Monday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 940 North Avenue 64, Los Angeles.

The event will be observed by members of the Episcopal Women's Council who will light a birthday cake at the open house and tea.

Special services will be held in the Church of the Angels, 1100 North Avenue 64, at 2 p.m. with Rt. Rev. Francis Eric Bloy, bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles, officiating.

ASSISTING HIM will be Rt. Rev. Robert Gooden, Rev. Aaron Driver, Rev. Howard Perry, Rev. Gilbert Prince and Rev. John H. Parke. Open house at the home will follow the services, announced Mrs. John R. Atwill of San Marino, president of the Women's Council, which represents Episcopal Churches in Southern California.

Baked foods and special culinary delicacies will be on display and sale. A treasure chest of articles donated by council members will be silently auctioned under the direction of Mrs. Carvel Baldwin of Altadena.

Hostesses at the anniversary tea will be Mrs. Herbert Fielding, president of the Women of St. Luke's in Long Beach, and Mrs. Harold Spickard, president of the Women of St. James of Newport Beach. They will be assisted by Mrs. Eugene Englar of Sierra Madre, council membership chairman, and Mrs. Morris Sheldon of Pasadena.

FRANK HOWARD, new director of the Church Home, will act as host at the 47th birthday event, with Mrs. Howard assisting.

On display will be Christmas cards which yearly are sold throughout Southern California for the benefit of the Episcopal Church Home for Children. The home cares for some 50 children of all races and creeds.

Members of the Church of the Ascension participating this year are Mrs. James Felton, president of the Women of the Church of the Ascension; Mrs. Martin Connolly, Mrs. Richard Simmons, Mrs. David Crane, Mrs. Gus Peterson and Mrs. Ralph Meeder.

RABBI EINHORN REPORT

Rabbi Emphraim F. Einhorn, spiritual leader of Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley, will speak on "What Happened at the Fourth Plenary World Jewish Congress Assembly in Stockholm" at the Shabbat Service Friday, Oct. 30, at 8:30 p.m. The Temple is affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Tour

The sparkle and excitement, the good smells and fun of a real family Christmas seemed to come to life at the Arcadia Auxiliary of Methodist Hospital general meeting this week when Mrs. Louis K. Randall, Holiday Homes tour chairman, outlined final plans for the group's fourth annual tour, set for Dec. 4. Mrs. David Ragains is co-chairman.

"We searched for houses which had a true 'home' atmosphere," Mrs. Randall stressed, "and decorators and homeowners are working together toward decorations which will inspire visitors to make similar arrangements in their own homes to make this Christmas just a little more exciting than previous ones."

Tickets and brochures will be in the hands of all auxiliary members within a few days, according to Mrs. Rachel Reid, ticket chairman, complete with convenient maps to facilitate finding the holiday homes on the day of the tour.

Tickets are priced at $2.50 for the complete tour of four homes, refreshments at the Tea House and a chance to win one of the handmade door prizes during the drawing at the end of the day.

Homes will be open from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. on Dec. 4, with the Tea House remaining open until 11 p.m.

Friends Service To Sponsor Play on Nov. 4

"Which Way the Wind," a dramatic play which has been called a forceful argument for peace, will be seen in Pasadena, Wed., Nov. 4 at 8:30, in Shakespeare Clubhouse, 230 S. Los Robles. The play is the work of Broadway playwright Philip Lewis and is currently on a coast-to-coast tour for the American Friends Service Committee. This is a complete departure for the Quaker organization and is the result of several years' efforts to find the right vehicle for a peace play which would have all the elements of good theatre.

Four professional actors make up the cast with Albert Bigelow as narrator. Californians will remember Bigelow as the skipper of the "Golden Rule," the small ketch which sailed from San Pedro some 18 months ago to make a protest voyage to the U.S. atomic weapons testing grounds in the Pacific Ocean.

Tickets are currently on sale at the American Friends Service Committee, 825 E. Union, Pasadena, SY 6-8159.

Newlywed Slocums Home From Big Sur Honeymoon

The newly-wed Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frank Slocum have returned to Berkeley where the groom is in his final year at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, training for the Episcopal priesthood, and the bride is at St. Margaret's House completing her studies for a certificate as director of religious education.

The couple was married Aug. 22 at Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo Park. The Rev. John R. Wyatt officiated at the double ring ceremony which was followed by the service of Holy Communion. He was assisted by George G. Swanson.

The bride, the former Dorothy Soest, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Soest of Menlo Park. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Slocum of Berkeley.

FOR HER MARRIAGE, the bride chose a ballet length gown of pale pink embroidered net over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her finger-tip pink tulle veil was held by a bandeau of sequins and pearls. She carried a prayer book with a cascade of pink carnations and tiny white orchids.

Mrs. Thomas Miner of Menlo Park was her sister's only attendant. She wore a beige net over taffeta frock styled like the bride's. She wore a matching sequin and net hat and carried deeper pink carnations on her prayer book.

The groom chose a fellow seminarian, John P. Fitzgerald of Seattle, Wash., to stand as his best man.

THE RECEPTION which followed the ceremony was held at Trinity Hall. Greeting local and out-of-town guests, the bride's mother wore a dress of light blue lace and matching sequin hat.

The groom's family was represented by his friend, Mrs. C. L. Rodgers of Minneapolis, who was attired in a deeper shade of blue.

Following the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon at Big Sur and Yosemite.

STORKLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Beck, 60 W. Laurel, are the parents of a son, Roger Vernon, born Oct. 9 at St. Luke Hospital weighing 9 pounds 15 ounces. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Audrey Fisher of Arcadia. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Beck of San Gabriel.

A son, Douglas Edward, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Deane E. Bottorf, 141 S. Holdman, Oct. 8 at St. Luke Hospital weighing 9 pounds 5 ounces. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harper of Claremont. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bottorf of Manhattan Beach. The Bottorfs have a daughter, Cindy, 5.

The Victor E. Morgans, 383-A E. Sierra Madre Blvd., are the parents of a son, Barren Lee, born Oct. 11 at St. Luke Hospital weighing 7 pounds 13 ounces. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Laura Morgan of Arcadia. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pade, also of Arcadia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Velasquez, 309 Old Rancho Rd., are the parents of a daughter, Marissa Ann, born Oct. 13 at St. Luke Hospital weighing 7 pounds 5 ounces. The maternal grandfather is Robert H. Riddle of Pasadena. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Velasquez, 199 N. Grove. The new arrival has two brothers, Robert John, 4 1/2, and Theodore, II, 3 1/2.

A daughter, Mary Catherine, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Meursing, 440 Foothill Ave., Sept. 23 at Arcadia Methodist Hospital weighing 7 pounds 5 ounces. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Meursing of Yorba Linda, Calif. The Meursings have another daughter, Melinda Noel, 4, and a son, Charlie, 7.

To See Slides Of Alaska Trip

Mrs. Charles Statton, of Alhambra, will show slides of her recent trip to Alaska at the seasons' first meeting of the Friendship Club, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Park House.

Mrs. Statton is the daughter of the club's vice president, Mrs. Etta Leguin.

Following the program, the Civic Club will provide refreshments, with Mrs. Claude Brown Jr. in charge.

The Friendship Club recently contributed money to the City Recreation Department to buy Halloween candy for children, and club members also helped the Woman's Club prepare candy for the Halloween celebration.

Bethany to Hear Seoul Missionary

Dr. Ed Kilbourne, recently granted the Doctor of Divinity degree by Asbury Seminary of Wilmore, Ky., will be the speaker for the morning service at Bethany Church this coming Sunday. Dr. Kilbourne and his family are now in the United States for furlough from their missionary duties in Seoul, Korea.

Dr. Schaper, pastor of Bethany Church, will lead the congregation in the observance of Holy Communion on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Sunday also marks the beginning of a five-week contest in the Sunday School with the North Redondo Chapel. Points for the contest are gained by the increase in attendance of each department over the average attendance for the past six months.

Bethany Family Breakfast will begin the contest. Approximately 70 families of Bethany Church have signed up to have a breakfast in their home on Sunday morning for 10 people, including their own family. Then they all come to Sunday School together. A goal of 777 has been set as the high for the contest Sundays.

Prosthetist Joins Staff at Sierra Engineering Co.

Benson Marsh, certified prosthetist, has joined the staff of Sierra Engineering Co., 123 E. Montecito Ave., Sierra Madre.

Mr. Marsh will work with designers and engineers in the development of new prosthetic components and on the improvement of those already manufactured by Sierra. His 15 years of experience, during which he has served nearly 6,000 patients, has given him a well-rounded background in what the prosthetist wants and what the amputee needs.

Mr. Marsh had polio at the age of 2 1/2 and a series of operations starting when he was 5 and lasting for two years. All during his school days he wore a leg brace.

The California Department of Vocational Rehabilitation supervised his education, and after aptitude testing during his senior year of high school, recommended a program in prosthetics to him.

He served a four-year apprenticeship before taking his examination for certification in 1952. He has completed courses in Upper Extremity and AK Prosthetics at UCLA and was a participant in the first amputee clinic at the Los Angeles Orthopedic Hospital.

Training Awards Presented Scouts At District Confab

Boy Scout Troop 376 of the Mt. Wilson District participated in the annual District Junior Leaders Conference at Sierra Madre Villa Park last weekend.

A few of the Scouts were attacked during the night by red ants and had to move to more suitable quarters.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre will hold a public hearing on November 19, 1959, at 8:00 o'clock P.M. in the Council Chambers of the City Hall of Sierra Madre, located at 55 West Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, California, for the purpose of considering and acting upon a proposed Conditional Use Permit for a Convalescent Sanitarium at 197 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. for property described as Portion Lot 2 and 3, Sierra Vista Tract.

Application and maps are on file in the office of the Secretary of the Planning Commission. The application for said Conditional Use Permit is based upon the grounds that there are special circumstances attached to said property which generally do not apply to other properties in the same district and vicinity; that the granting of a Conditional Use Permit as aforesaid will not result in a material damage or prejudice to other persons in the vicinity thereof; in that the proposed Conditional Use Permit, if granted, would be subject to such conditions as the Planning Commission may deem necessary to assure that the spirit and purpose of said Ordinance No. 535 will be observed, public welfare and safety secured and substantial justice done to all parties.

Scouting Around . . .

Annual Calendar Sale To Run Through Nov. 9

Girl Scout calendars will again be evident through Nov. 9, when Sierra Madre Girl Scouts take part in the annual calendar sale to augment their troop treasuries. The proceeds from the calendar sales, along with troop dues and occasional extra contributions for special events, are used for troop craft projects made for various hospitals. Service Program, for the projects, such as the tray favors served in the Community chaise of such equipment as is necessary for troop activities in carrying out the Girl Scout program, for cook-outs or camp-outs to increase outdoor skills, and to keep the Girl Scout activities within the financial reach of as many girls as possible.

SIX BROWNIE Scouts of Troop 515 and their leader, Mrs. Robert Osti, and eight Brownies of Troop 505 had 100 per cent attendance at Camp Mariposa Day Camp during the summer. Troop 505 had the largest single troop representation in the other camp projects and cook-outs. The climax of their summer camp session was a Dinosaur Egg-Hunt, ending in a watermelon feast.

TROOP 507 SCOUTS are making posters for the Community Halloween party.

This troop also had the largest number of girls from Sierra Madre Neighborhood attending Pasadena Council established camps during the summer.

Carol Acra, Celia Bonney, Jolee Crehan, Roberta Goldberg, Elyse Henri, Linda Richter, Charline Roe and Kitty Lou Wittig attended Primitive Day Camp; Karne French attended Mission Ranch; and Terry Brett, Diantha Burnett, Linda Cline, Barbara Colvin, Roberta Goldberg, Susan Osti, Nancy Redman, and Linda Richter attended Singing Pines.

Space Film Shown 4th, 6th Grades

Miss Joan Tracy, 16, the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Tracy, underwent an emergency appendectomy Sunday morning at St. Luke Hospital in Pasadena. She is reported recuperating satisfactorily. Miss Tracy is a student at Ramona Convent.

KINDERGARTEN children at Sierra Madre School will have Halloween parties Friday in their rooms. Arrangements have been made by teachers and room mothers. All rooms in the school have been decorated for Halloween with pumpkins, witches, black cats and skeletons and other decorations in keeping with the season.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS membership drive is under way at the Sierra Madre School. Children may bring money or small gifts (pencils, erasers, chewing gum and small toys) to send to children overseas. Any child who makes any contribution becomes a member of the Junior Red Cross.

RALPH RULE was chairman of a PTA-sponsored drive for old newspapers and grease Saturday. Proceeds of the sale of the collected items will go to the PTA treasury.

DAVE WILMOT'S sixth grade students had a fiesta in their room as a culmination of their study of Mexico. Mothers brought tacos for the children to eat at noon. The afternoon's activities included a "bull-fight," a spelling bee, and folk dancing. There were 15 guests present including mothers and staff members.

TWO NEW films on science and space were shown to fourth and sixth grade children at a science assembly in the Sierra Madre School Auditorium. The films were presented through the courtesy of the Caltech Jet Propulsion Laboratory. Arrangements for the program were made by Mrs. Wanda Spaulding, a cadet teacher, whose husband is an engineer.

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Menrin
STC 7-9634

Life seems to get more complicated every year about this time. For the last three weeks the children have been after me as to what kind of costume they could wear on Halloween. I have procrastinated as long as they will let me. They are beginning to be quite insistent in spite of the fact that I keep telling them that it is still two days away. I meekly suggested ghosts as I do every year and the only taker I got was my two-year-old. He's not old enough to fight back and besides that's one of the few words he can speak clearly.

The next one up finally capitulated and said she'd be a mouse for the third year. She feels a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. My 10-year-old feels she could be her best as a bride. (Now I ask you, what is scary about a bride?) My eldest is being real cooperative this year, however. He reckoned he'd just be a beatnik, with a butch haircut yet.

MR. AND MRS. J. Arturo Gutierrez of Fairpoint Ave. became parents again for the 11th time. Their daughter was born on Oct. 20 at St. Luke Hospital. She weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces and will be christened Maria Christina. Her brothers and sisters are Gloria, Gabriel, Gracia, Guadalupe, Guillermina, Elena, Arturo, Jose Luis, Maria Leticia and Ana Luz.

MR. AND MRS. Frank D. Ferris of Meyer Loa Lane are home again after a five-week trip that took them around the world by plane. They left from here and flew to New York. From there they went to Paris, Frankfurt, Zurich, Rome, Beirut, Damascus, Karachi, New Delhi, Calcutta, Hong Kong, Tokyo and then to Hawaii before returning home. At each stop they were met at the plane by a guide and taken to the hotel. They were able to see each place to travel around the country, side and to nearby points of interest. Mr. Ferris is the owner of Decor 8 Interiors and Home Furnishings. He found many beautiful things on this trip to have shipped back here for his shop. They felt the two places they would like to return to would be Rome and Hong Kong. They were at the latter during the Moon Festival and the whole city was in a gay spirit.

MR. AND MRS. Ronald King Perry recently celebrated the baptism of their two children at the Church of the Ascension in Sierra Madre. Their son, Ronald King Perry Jr., aged 1½, was sponsored by Mr. Perry Free, Mr. Hodge Dolle and Miss Sandy Hill. Their daughter, Monica Perry, aged 3 months, was sponsored by Miss Teddi Tindall, Miss Maria Straughan and Mr. James MacBeth. Rev. Harley Gibbs Smith officiated at the christening.

After the ceremony Mrs. Robert Perry, the children's paternal grandmother, was co-hostess at a brunch in the Perry Jr. home in Temple City. Twenty guests joined them there including Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pyle, the children's maternal grandparents, from Old House Rd. This is the same church that the daughter was baptized in as a child.

MR. AND MRS. Lawrence Deitzel of Meyer Loa Lane are home again after a trip to the Grand Canyon. After visiting there for a couple of days they went on to El Paso, Tex., where they visited their son and wife. They returned by way of Carlsbad Caverns. Mrs. Deitzel is waiting for the call that will take her back down to Texas for the birth of a grandchild.

MR. AND MRS. Don Jax-theimer are back from a week's vacation in Corona del Mar. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Sabin. They stayed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lange of our area.

FRIENDS AND neighbors were saddened last week to hear of the death of Mr. Robert Lockard of 3227 Barhite. In addition to his wife, he left a son, Craig, and a daughter, Leslie.

FLOWER SHOW QUEEN—Selected to reign over the San Gabriel Valley Fall Flower and Garden Show at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, Arcadia, Oct. 30 through Nov. 1, is pretty Sue Tange, 16-year-old Pasadena High School student and Adrian model. Entries will include cut flower exhibits, orchids, bonsai, flower arrangements, garden club and landscape displays and special exhibits. Hours of the free show are noon to 9:30 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Saturday, and 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Sunday.

UP ON ...

Hastings Hill

No color brown is great this year for ladies' clothes, so the story goes. So is taupe, "they" say.

Well, now taupe is a very fascinating name for a color and we decided to find out just what color it is to make sure we wanted it for our very own. We thought, privately, that it was the same as no-color brown.

So we questioned friends. "Sort of tannish," replied one friend, confidently.

"That sort of dirty purplish color," answered another just as confidently, and added, "you don't want anything that color."

"Brown," said another, "grayish brown, with sort of a tinge of blue."

"The color of that palm tree trunk," said one by way of illustration.

"This blouse is taupe," one gal told us, "sort of dark bluish color."

Being completely confused, we looked it up. "Dull yellowish gray," said Webster, "mole color."

To think that something "mole color" could cause so much discussion! We are now going to investigate "puce."

SUSAN RICHARDS, nine-year-old champion baton twirler, who lives up Sierra Madre Villa way, will strut her stuff in the Eugene Field Halloween parade Saturday morning. She is in addition to Mousketeer Sharon Baird, who is coming from her Van Nuys home for the event.

THE BUD Winterbottoms, Henry and LuAnn Hellmers, Bob and Peter Curtiss were among the old grade spotted at the Cal alumni party Saturday night at the Herb Williams' San Marino home.

THERE WERE a number of Hastings residents among many guests at the Shakespeare Junior benefit jazz party Sunday afternoon in Arcadia. Saw Jack and Belle Partch, the John McGraws, Betty and Chuck Coates and Jane and Chuck Hurter, for instance. There were more energetic dancers there than we'd seen in a long time. Jane Hurter, eagerly clutching her ticket and hoping to win a free trip to Las Vegas, had her number called all right. Her prize—two free cafeteria dinners.

PHYL and Charlie Hardier Lockard of 3227 Barhite. In addition to his wife, he left a son, Craig, and a daughter, Leslie.

Don Benito PTA Slates Clothes Drive

Don Benito PTA will hold its semi-annual drive to collect used clean clothing and shoes for the clothing exchange during the week of Nov. 2-6.

All parents are urged to send articles of clothing to school at this time. "Clancy," the train, will be located in the hall near the main office to receive all contributions. Clothing for children from kindergarten through high school ages is needed.

The PTA clothing exchange, located at 12 N. Harkness, services and benefits the entire Pasadena school district and is staffed by PTA welfare chairmen. Home pick-up service can be requested for the Don Benito drive by calling Helen Krugman, welfare chairman, ELgin 5-3614, or Maddy Primack, at ELgin 5-3814.

Auxiliary Has Annual Sale Today

Pasadena Auxiliary of the Boys Republic will open the doors of Exhibition Hall in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium for the 89th semi-annual "World's Largest Rummage Sale" today at 9 a.m. All the proceeds of this gigantic sale supply many advantages such as an attractive home life, dental care or a summer vacation to 130 boys who call Boys Republic their home. This 240-acre farm-school, near Chino, non-sectarian and youth governed, was founded in 1907 in the interests of good citizenship.

Mrs. Carvel E. Baldwin, president of the auxiliary and general chairman of the one-day event, has announced that the doors will remain open until 3 p.m. Mrs. John L. Bolenbaugh, sales personnel chairman, will be responsible for staffing the 24 departments and the placing of the many friends invited to assist the members on sale day. Prominent civic leaders and businessmen also have volunteered their help.

Department managers for this sale are Mmes. Russell A. Stapleton, accessories; Donald R. Wright, Art; Carleton B. Tibbets, boys; Edward P. Garvey, china and glass; Harold L. Hook, coats and suits; A. C. Burnham, dresses; W. D. Lucas, furniture; Harry F. Manning, girls; Peter Vogel, haberdashery; Daniel T. Thomas, hardware; R. L. Friedline, household; E. Earl Milholland, infants; Frederick K. Stewart, jewelry; Roland T. Clark, lamps and shades; Charles E. Boyle, lingerie; Richard Gorbey, mens' suits; Theodore Paxson, millinery; Kenneth N. Graham, pictures; Frank A. Mathey, shoes; Thomas S. Minney, toys; Woodrow A. Mecca, Women's Sports; Carol G. Wynn, sorting.

There are many times when our "boys in blue" are felt to be "unfeeling and uncaring" for the citizens they have to look after. However, the other evening as I and my man were wending our way through a residential street in Pasadena, we saw the red lights of a patrol car blinking in the distance. As we approached the stopped vehicles, we craned our necks to see who the unlucky soul was to have attracted the attention of one of the city's best. We had the decency to blush at our snap judgment when we saw the officer working like a dog, changing a flat as a more-

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Never borrow money from Running Elk—He never stops dunning you for it!"

Mousketeer to Lead Field Halloween Parade Saturday

Two new surprises were announced this week for the Eugene Field PTA Halloween carnival Saturday—Sharon Baird, a Mousketeer, will lead the costume parade at 10 a.m., and "Treasure Island," a full-length Disney film, will be shown three times during the day.

All children are invited to participate in the parade with Sharon, who is familiar to most of them through television. Each child in the parade will receive a free ticket for a carnival game or booth activity.

"Treasure Island" will be shown at 10:30 p.m.; 12:15 and 2 p.m. at 30 cents a ticket. The show runs 1½ hours.

A puppet show also is scheduled from 11 a.m. on, each performance running one-half hour.

Since the carnival will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., children and their parents are being encouraged to have their lunch at the school. Hotdog, ice cream and soft drink booths will be set up.

This will be the first carnival that Field has had in three years and many of the former fun booths will return, including the Cake Walk, a sort of musical chairs game enjoyed by adults as well as children, with the prize each game being a home-made cake.

Children also will try their hand at fishing for prizes, tossing rings, balls and darts at targets for more prizes. There will be a white elephant booth, amply stocked with comic books and toys, as well as objects for adults. A special feature of the carnival will be a booth selling doll clothes, hand made for the past few weeks by mothers of the school. Tickets for "Treasure Island" may be purchased after school tomorrow afternoon, or at the carnival. All other tickets will be for sale at the carnival only.

Marshall PTA Plans Parent Education Series

"Understanding the Curriculum" was the topic of Dr. E. H. Floyd, assistant superintendent of instruction, who spoke at the first regular meeting of the John Marshall Junior High School PTA.

The program was followed by a tea and an opportunity to meet the members of the faculty and parents of new students.

Parent Education series to be given at the school are: Miss V. Ott and Mr. Glenn, foreign language and math, Oct. 29, Marshall Library.

Dr. Edward Stainbrook, "Guidance and Counseling in the Schools," Nov. 5, Marshall Auditorium.

Mr. Pearson, Miss Ott and Miss Vail, science, social studies and English, Dec. 3, Marshall Library.

All sessions start at 7:45.

Las Companeras Meeting Nov. 4

Las Companeras will meet Nov. 4 at Chef's Inn for its regular monthly meeting. The social hour will begin at 11:30 with luncheon served at 12:30.

Following a short business meeting presided over by the president, Mrs. Harlan A. Dunn, the program chairman, Mrs. Forrest Paxson, will introduce Edwin Schallert, former Los Angeles Times drama critic, who will discuss "Anecdotes of a Critic."

Hastings Families Invited To Trinity Fiesta Nov. 7

Families from throughout the area are invited to the annual fiesta planned by couples' clubs of Trinity Presbyterian Church from 5 to 8 p.m. Nov. 7 in the church courtyard.

Each year the event draws an increasingly large number of local residents, who come to watch as their hamburgers and cheeseburgers are barbecued to taste, choose their favorite salads and desserts, and then eat with friends at outdoor tables.

Mrs. Edsel Curry is chairman of the 1959 fiesta, and among her assistants are Mr. and Mrs. Al Bergh, Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Scherer, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Faust, Mr. and Mrs. T. Gardner Farmer and Mrs. Bill Worden.

Supper may be selected from a menu of hamburgers, cheeseburgers, chili size and other chili variations, salads, cake, ice cream, coffee, punch or milk.

Boy Scouts will have a grab booth. The Vikings, seventh and eighth graders, will sponsor a movie booth, and the girls choir will entertain with songs.

Nursery care for tots will be provided by members of the Freelancers. There will be dancing for teenagers in Fellowship Hall.

Women's Council To Sponsor Dinner Dance

"Autumn Prelude" is the theme chosen by the Women's Council of Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Catholic Church parish for the dinner-dance to be held Saturday, Nov. 7, in the entire fourth floor suite of the Pasadena Athletic Club, 425 Green St.

Mrs. James C. Wentz, chairman, has announced the social hour will begin at 6:30 and dinner will be served at 7:30.

Arvin Dale and his Blitmore Hotel orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

Mrs. Charles Brinton, Mrs. Robert Box and Mrs. Diane Manning will be hostesses for this, the first dinner-dance sponsored by the Women's Council and it is hoped it will be such a success that it will become an annual affair.

Mrs. G. R. Knudson is supervising decorations which will carry out the autumn theme.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Wentz at ELgin 5-2730.

Jr. League Thrift Shop Has Opening

Pasadena Junior League Shop at 1758 E. Colorado Blvd., now known as "The Clothesline," had its grand opening last Tuesday.

The success of the shop is due to a number of reasons. One is the wide public appeal of the shop's dual service to the community. Families of limited income can clothe themselves and find a wide variety of household and personal accessories at extremely low prices. Secondly is the equally important fact that all profits from the shop go directly to the league's Community Fund for welfare purposes. From the years of Oct. 1953-1959 the shop has contributed $56,143.22 to the Community Trust Fund.

The merchandise of the shop is donated by or through Junior League members who are each required to meet a quota of thirty dollars worth of goods annually. Many members, through their generosity and interest in the shop, exceed this quota.

The girls who work as clerks or markers average over 3,000 volunteer hours per year.

Mrs. William E. Still, chairman of this year's committee consisting of Mmes. William G. King III, C. Howard Watts, Gerald Whitehead, Richard Thomas, John Northrop, Richard Miller, Kern Fieldler, John Osgood and Hugh Wilson Jr., announced they themselves are doing the painting and com-

St. Luke Auxiliary Plans Annual Membership Tea

Members of Saint Luke Hospital Auxiliary have circled Nov. 10 on their calendars as the date for the 26th annual membership tea. The hour is from 2 until 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dean Sweeney, 1245 Wentworth Ave., Pasadena.

Receiving guests with Mrs. Sweeney will be Mrs. Franklin Mulvey, auxiliary president; Mrs. Raymond Wolters, membership chairman, and Mrs. Harry Patterson, hospitably chairman.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. John Hennessy, director of volunteers, and Mmes. J. William Grant, John J. O'Leary, Wendell Cabot Jr., Harold F. Collins, Arthur J. Lirette, Walter F. Schwartz and Miss Rose Fleischer, past presidents of the auxiliary.

Mmes. Harold E. Scott and Cecil Colvey will be in charge of the tea table, assisted by Mmes. Frank Wickham, Edward F. Sturtevant, Robert McDavid, Stanley Calvert, William Grassman and E. W. Steinmetz.

Mrs. Barrett Pauley will be in charge of decorations. Musical entertainment will be furnished by Mrs. James Horan and Mrs. Edward Moloney.

New members introduced at the tea will be Mmes. Norman McBride, Perry Brown, Robert Powell, John Newport, Robert Watson, Robert McDavid and Miss Mary Jane Murphy.

Board members acting as hostesses will be Mmes. Carl J. Dolphin, Bradford Kern, Jimmy Phillips, Carlos Saccasa, Charles Ware, George Bennett, Carl Fisher, John Frantz and William E. Mason.

Membership in the auxiliary is open to all women who are interested in Saint Luke Hospital. No matter what the time and abilities one has to offer, the hospital can almost always use a person's help.

The principal work of the auxiliary is its very active volunteer service and fund-raising activities throughout the year to purchase much needed hospital equipment, yet the organization is full of many splendid facets interwoven with fun, plus the joy of finding out that being needed is a great reward.

Brubeck, Previn in Jazz Concert

With such combos as the Dave Brubeck Quartet and top soloists participating, the second annual Caltech jazz concert will be staged at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium Saturday, Oct. 31.

Other headliners include Andre Previn, jazz concert pianist and Academy award-winning composer and conductor for the screen; the Arthur Lyman Quartet, featuring exotic sounds, and Mavis Rivers, Samoan-born singing sensation.

PROCEEDS FROM the concert go toward financing Caltech student activities, including helping furnish a new student center, said Hugh Kieffer, chairman of Caltech's associated students activities.

The students are putting on the concert. Bill Stewart, KMPF disc jockey, will be master of ceremonies.

The Dave Brubeck group, named the nation's top combo in several polls, features Brubeck on the piano, Paul Desmond on alto sax, Gene Wright on bass and Joe Morello on drums. Last year the quartet toured several countries in southern Asia, much of the tour being sponsored by the State Department, to bring American jazz to areas that had never heard it before.

Previn, who received an Oscar for the musical score of the film "Gigi," will be accompanied at the piano by a drummer and bass player.

THE ART LYMAN group will feature Allan Soera at the piano, John Kramer on the bass, Harold Ching on percussion and Lyman at the vibraphone. This combo from Hawaii—explores musical sounds in nature.

An instrumental group will provide background music for the sensitive voice of Miss Rivers.

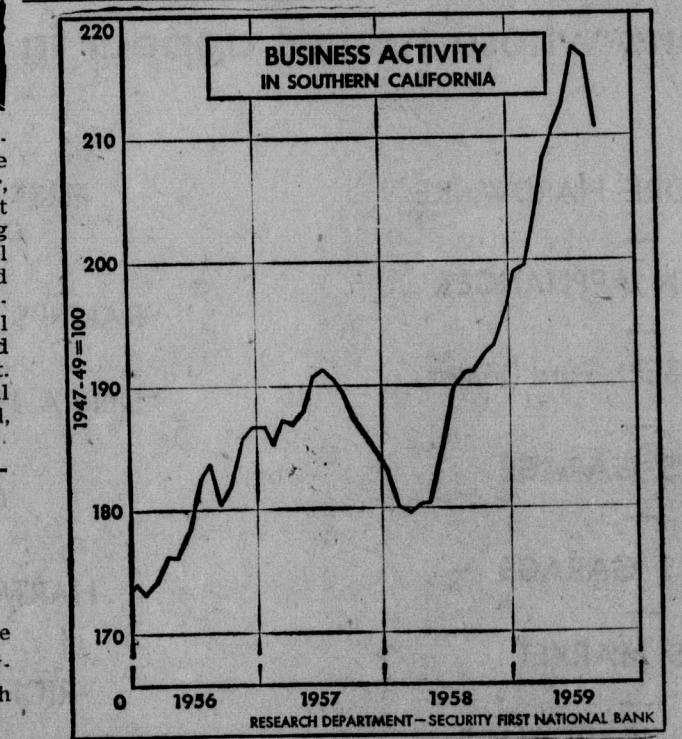

Tickets may be obtained from all Mutual ticket agencies, Southern California Music Co., 737 S. Hill St., Los Angeles; Ward Bowling Music Co., 712 E. Colorado Blvd., Pasadena; Herbert's, 224 Yale St., Claremont; and the News Bureau at Caltech.

PADUA DANCER

plete redecoration of the shop. Mrs. Hugh Wilson, a league member and leading architect, has designed the plans for the new shop.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY in the southern half of California declined in September for the second consecutive month, primarily because of the nation-wide steel strike, according to Security First National Bank's Monthly Summary of Business Conditions. Nearly all of the components of Security's Southland business index participated in the August to September drop. E. W. Wiegels, vice president and manager of Security's Foothill and Rosemead branches, said, "The only exceptions to the decline were manufacturing employment, motion picture employment and the number of telephones in use. Mr. Wiegels said. These three elements showed moderate gains. The business decline appeared to reflect a combination of restraining forces, with the steel strike probably having the greatest influence. Mr. Wiegels stated. The tightening of credit also appears to be a factor and the subsidence of homebuilding activity from an unsustainable peak has contributed to the decline, the banker opined.

Take your problems to Church this week —

Millions Leave Them There!

Truly a Book of Life

The Holy Writ is a book such as no other. It is a book for grandmothers and for her grandchild. It is a book of romance, of valor, of prophecy, of prayer and real love. In short, it is a book of life. Its directions, simple and explicit. To each inhabitant of the earth it will point the way to living a truly happy and successful life.

Full appreciation and study of the Bible may best be gained through association with and participation in a fellowship whose text is the Holy Book. By taking an active part in the church of their faith anyone may learn to use the Bible in such a manner as to gain and possess all the knowledge necessary to live in the fashion designed and intended by the Creator.

With the hope that it will, in some measure, foster and help sustain that which is good in family and community life, this feature is sponsored by the business firms and organizations whose names appear in this space.

Fisherman's Paradise Is Easy Drive

By Al Miyadi

"WHERE THE RIVER MEETS THE SEA"—Have you ever yearned for an uncrowded fishing paradise where solitude is the kingdom and thousands of 250-lb. fish comprise the sole populace?

I know of just such a paradise. But I've never been there. Last month, I met an old man who first told me of the place where "the river meets the sea."

Few Americans have fished there—perhaps two hundred, perhaps two dozen.

The spot is so unspoiled it still lacks even an informal name.

Yet, it's located less than 200 miles from metropolitan Los Angeles.

According to the old man, it's exactly where "the river meets the sea," where the Colorado River empties into the fabled California Gulf.

His directions: Past Mexicali to one mile beyond El Mayor on the San Felipe Highway, turn left (east) at Kilometer 85, follow the dirt road to its conclusion.

Travel time, of course, varies—for Ma and Pa, it's five to six hours; for the uninhibited leadfoot, it's four hours flat.

"It's in May they come, the totuava and the corvina—the males with muscles drawn, the females with their bloating bellies—nature's spectacular, the spawning of the migratory specie.

"Sometimes," the old man said, "they hit the river belly to belly, stacked 12 deep."

The season is brief, perhaps three weeks.

Conditions are purely primitive, camping facilities non-existent.

There are, however, a few shelters, and though most of the fishing is done from shore, canoes can be rented. One may also launch his own boat—and at his own risk.

Sardines are sure-fire bait, chrome jigs nearly as effective. Heavy tackle with at

Surgery in Stomach Ulcer Cases Explored

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill District of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.)

QUESTION—Is surgery the best treatment for stomach ulcers?—S.R.

ANSWER — In discussing the stomach, or gastric, ulcers, one must distinguish between this condition and ulcer of the duodenum (the first portion of the small intestine immediately following the stomach). The latter condition occurs much more frequently than ulcer of the stomach and unless certain complications are present it usually is treated medically.

Opinions as to when surgery is indicated for stomach ulcers are not uniform. Many physicians believe that surgery is the best procedure. They believe that it is difficult to find the difference between a simple ulcer and a beginning cancer with ulcer formation and also that some ulcers may later change into cancers. Surgery for stomach ulcers usually is successful.

Another group of research workers believe, however, that the simple ulcer of the stomach does not change into a cancer. They believe that it is possible in most cases to differentiate accurately between benign and malignant ulcer. It is their opinion that if the physician is able to rule out cancer of the stomach, medical treatment is entirely permissible.

Sometimes the medical treatment of stomach and duodenal ulcers must be abandoned in the presence of certain complications, such as severe ulcer bleeding in a patient of advanced age, perforation or scar obstruction of the stomach's outlet.

Q—Is there anything new in the treatment of psoriasis?—D.J.

A—No. The cause of this chronic inflammatory skin disease is still unknown although a good deal of research is being carried out at the present time. Treatment still consists of a variety of external and internal measures which experience has shown can help control the disease. But anyone with psoriasis cannot be cured in the sense that the condition may not recur at some future date.

Q—Do underarm deodorants actually decrease excessive perspiration?—S.R.

A—It has long been thought that various salts of aluminum which are used in most of the commercial underarm deodorants produce an actual decrease in the amount of perspiration. However, some recent investigations have cast doubt on this, suggesting that the beneficial effects of these preparations are due to their antibacterial properties which seem to cut down the characteristic odor.

Foreign Aid Is LWV Topic at Nov. 3 Meeting

"Can We Afford Foreign Aid?" is the question to be posed to members and guests of the League of Women Voters of Pasadena by Dr. Alan Sweezy, Caltech professor of economics, when they meet at the Women's City Club Tuesday, Nov. 3.

The general meeting will be brought to order at 10 a.m. by Mrs. Willard Hayden, president. A report on decisions and activities of local public boards and commissions will be presented by Mrs. Skipper Rostker.

Mrs. Bertin Posthill will present preliminary results of conclusions reached at the end of the League's study of Water Resources. National items of continuing concern will be reviewed by Mrs. Marvin G. Whitney.

British Art Exhibit Set at Huntington

The Huntington Library and Art Gallery in San Marino reopens on Nov. 1 after its annual October closing with an exhibition of British drawings and water colors.

The exhibit is selected from the Huntington's recently acquired Gilbert Davis Collection which, according to Dr. Robert R. Wark, art curator of the Huntington, is the most important addition to the Art Gallery during the past 30 years.

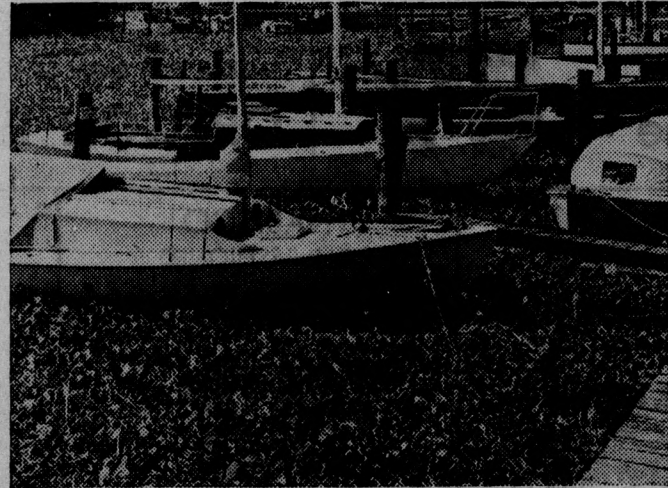

The entire collection of approximately 1,700 drawings and water colors includes 24 by Thomas Gainsborough, 60 by John Constable, 12 by J. M. W. Turner, and over 50 by Thomas Rowlandson. In all, some 365 artists of the 17th, 18th and 19th Centuries, including nearly all the important draftsmen active in England during that time, are represented.

The exhibition, occupying several upstairs rooms in the Art Gallery, consists of about 50 of these drawings and water colors.

The exhibit, which includes such water colors as Thomas Girtin's landscape, "Rainbow on the Exe," signed by the artist and dated 1800, and Constable's "Salisbury Cathedral," as well as Gainsborough's chalk and water color drawing "The Market Cart," will be on view from 1 to 4:30 every afternoon except Mondays and holidays, from Nov. 1 through December.

"V" FOR . . . Victory for Sir Winston Churchill! He is shown during a pre-election tour of his parliamentary district. It was his 19th campaign, and he was elected to parliament again.

LANDING CRAFT? . . . Although they seem to be resting on someone's lawn, these boats are tied up at Marjorie Park Yacht Basin in Tampa, Fla., which is clogged with floating hyacinths.

THE VAMP RETURNS . . . Remember Pola Negri, famed star of the silent screen? The actress is interviewed en route to Munich, Germany, for a new film role.

ARTIFICIAL MOTHER . . . It's all the same milk to dogs, cats, minks, ferrets and other orphaned animals who feed together from this eight bottle contraption at the International Animal Nursery in New York. Covered with rabbit's fur, it serves as a mother of many kinds.

Garden Notes . . .

For a Real 'Dutch Treat'
Plant Colorful Tulips Now

Holland, at tulip time, has become a substitute in many a smitten gardener's mind for paradise, itself. But you don't have to "go Dutch," the California Association of Nurserymen reminds us. You can enjoy this vision of loveliness in your own backyard by the simple expedient of planting the tulip bulbs now.

Even though tulips look too good to be true, their culture is easy. You will want to set each bulb about 6 inches deep and, 6 to 12 inches apart.

BUT DON'T make the mistake of planting them in a straight line like wooden soldiers—and don't plant them sparsely either. For the type of setting that tulips were born to shine in, you will want to mass them heavily.

Some people like to stagger the colors—a group of yellow—then a clump of red ones, etc. Others like a mixed effect . . . but with some care as to color proximity, i.e., don't place your purples next to your orange-reds. This may be gilding the lily—or the tulip, as it were—since these flowers are actually lovely enough to overcome any handicaps you may impose upon them.

As for which tulips to choose, this is a dizzy but delightful decision. The best way is to visit your nursery and gaze at the color pictures on the bulb racks. Among the many families is the Darwin in rich shades of red, purple, pink, white and yellow.

BREEDER TULIPS come in "arty" shades of brown, bronze, orange, yellow and pink. Crosses of these offer many other shades, including pure glistening whites. The parrot or dragon tulips are large and twisted with feathered petals . . . including unusual green tones as well as other brilliant shades.

But this is only the beginning. Plan to spend a good while at the tulip bins, and be sure to consult your nurseryman about new varieties that have appeared on the garden scene.

Alpha Chi Omega
Meets Nov. 3

Mrs. Claude B. Norris of Riverside, district alumnae chairman of Alpha Chi Omega, will be honored at the daytime alumnae group meeting of the sorority on Nov. 3 at 11 a.m.

Hostess for the day will be Miss Naomi Gunderson, 41 E. Bonita Dr., Sierra Madre. Assisting her will be Mrs. J. Roy Smetz, Mrs. Myron E. Smith and Mrs. Warren J. Nelson.

Luncheon will follow the meeting. A book review to be given by Mrs. Muriel Helfenbein is planned for the afternoon program.

BALLETS PRESENTED

Three ballets, "Romantic Rosette," "Odysseus" and "Harlequin's Millions," comprise the program that National Ballet Theatre of Finland, now touring under the auspices of the President of the Republic, will give at its local appearance in Pasadena Civic Auditorium Nov. 28 on Impresario Mary Bran's concert series, for the benefit of Finlandia Association Scholarship Fund.

FINAL PERFORMANCE

"Dear Delinquent," Town Hall Theatre's current comedy, will finish its month's run with a final performance Saturday evening, Oct. 31, at 8:30 o'clock.

WATER MIX EXHIBIT

Nine paintings and three wash drawings by Walter Mix of La Verne are now being exhibited in the foyer of Padua Hills Theatre.

GOING UP

It's easy to save money on your telephone calls (if you have an ELgin prefix). Time is money—save both with a TELE-COST MESSAGE RATE CHART

Making friends is a big part of our business and when we come across an idea that helps folks save money, we like to pass it along.

YES now you can save substantial amounts of money on your telephone calls, in your home or office, by knowing how much it costs to talk for 3 minutes, 5 minutes—or longer when calling a number that is not in your free calling area.

The TELE-COST telephone rate chart shows you the numbers you may call in your free calling area. And it also shows you the costs of calls, by elapsed time, to other prefix numbers in the Los Angeles metropolitan area, that ARE NOT included on your phone bill.
